VERMONT FOOTBALL COACHES ASSOCIATION CLINIC

Dear Coach,

The Vermont High School Coaches Association is hosting the Annual Football Clinic at Rutland High School again this year. The clinic is to be held at Rutland High School on March 12^h and 13th, 2010.

The clinic will include fifteen lecture hours; starting with four one- hour session's Friday evening and continuing with a double lecture format on Saturday. The cost of the clinic will also include 5 drink tickets and a buffet pass for a social following Friday's sessions. The association has put together an exciting group of topics delivered by some of the most respected college and high school coaches in the Northeast. Many of the top college coaches from around New England will be speaking. Many vendors from around the northeast will also be present. These coaches will be available to answer any of your questions and to help all of us promote, teach, and further appreciate the great game of football. If you are looking for a clinic where the speakers are readily available to answer your specific questions, this clinic is for you.

The cost of the clinic is as follows:

Vt. High School Coaches Association Member and any staff member of that school-$30/person Non-members--$35.

Any person wishing to have lunch provided on Saturday (includes a sandwich, chips, and soda) should include an additional $7:00

Please fill out completely and mail to:

Coach Mike Norman
c/o Rutland High School
22 Stratton Road
Rutland, Vermont 05701
